The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Williams was arrested and charged with violating the following crimes on May 11, 2017, in Yakima, Washington. He was charged with obstructing a law enforcement officer, in violation of the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 9A.76.020, and possession of drug paraphernalia, in violation of Yakima Municipal Code (YKM) 6.08.020.

The following information was taken from police reports written by Yakima Police Department (YPD) officers for incident number 17Y019566.

stop and YPD announced they were the police. Mr. Williams ran several blocks towards his residence at 1002 Queen Avenue. Mr. Williams was arrested in the yard of 923 Queen Avenue, by YPD. As Mr. Williams was running from YPD, officers observed Mr. Williams tossing items from his person, including a glass pipe. An officer checked the area where Mr. Williams was tossing items as he ran. YPD located a vape pen, a glass pipe with a white powdery substance, a small package with Mr. Williams' identification and a black cell phone with Mr. Williams' photo on the cover.

When the officer returned to the police station, the glass pipe with the white powder substance inside was tested for controlled substances. The white powder substance tested positive for amphetamine.

YPD spoke with Mr. Williams at Yakima County Jail about his arrest. Mr. Williams informed YPD, he heard police sirens and when he saw YPD he ran. He also stated he ran because he had a warrant and did not want to be caught.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
